

'REMEMBER SCARBOROUGH!' is a collaborative project led by Scarborough Museums Trust and explores the impact of World War One on communities in the region.

- Find out more about the German Bombardment of East Coast towns in 1914
- Discover the impact of the War on rural communities
- Get involved with community projects and events across the region

Follow us on Twitter @Rem-Scarborough

CAN YOU HELP?

We are looking for any relevant contributions. Please contact Esther Graham, using the details below, with any objects, stories or memories.

For further information please visit the Western Front Association's websites dedicated to the Bombardment of the civilian towns Scarborough and Whitby:

www.scarborough1914-18.co.uk

www.rememberscarborough.co.uk

Interested in visiting the only British battlefield of World War One?

The Heugh Gun Battery museum will be running events and activities to commemorate the Bombardment of Hartlepool in December 1914

PANNETT ART GALLERY

23RD JULY - 31ST AUGUST

RNLI exhibition - Hope in the Great War

Also explore the impact of WW1 on Whitby with our poet in residence from August 2014.

For further details contact Esther Graham, Project Officer on 01723 384515 or at esther.graham@smtrust.uk.com

Supported by ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Scarborough Museums Trust
www.scarboroughmuseumstrust.org.uk

PARTNERS

Scarborough Maritime Heritage Centre
www.scarboroughsmaritimeheritage.org.uk

Western Front Association
www.westernfrontassociation.com

Whitby Museum
www.whitbymuseum.org.uk

Pannett Art Gallery, Whitby
www.pannettartgallery.org

Heugh Battery Museum, Hartlepool
www.heughbattery.com

Beck isle Museum, Pickering
www.beckislemuseum.org.uk

Wagoners Museum, Sledmere House, Driffield
www.sledmerehouse.com

SUPPORT PARTNERS

York Museums Trust
www.yorkmuseumstrust.org.uk

English Heritage
www.english-heritage.org.uk

1. Hartlepool
2. Whitby
3. Pickering
4. Scarborough
5. York
6. Driffield

Please note, all information is correct at the time of writing but may be subject to change. Please phone before making a special journey to visit any exhibition or venue.

REMEMBER SCARBOROUGH!

1914 - 2014

REGIONAL PARTNERSHIP

NEW EXHIBITIONS

WAGONERS' SPECIAL RESERVE MUSEUM, SLEDMERE HOUSE

FROM MARCH 2014

A piece of local history that became a piece of army history

BECK ISLE MUSEUM

THROUGHOUT 2014

Explore through new displays the impact of the War on Pickering

SCARBOROUGH ART GALLERY

FROM JULY 26TH 2014

Discover what happened during the Scarborough Bombardment by German warships in 1914

WHITBY MUSEUM

FROM JULY 1ST 2014

Find out all about the Bombardment of Whitby and the Rohilla Hospital ship

THE BOMBARDMENT OF SCARBOROUGH

FROM 4TH AUGUST 2014

Visit WW1 displays at the Maritime Heritage Centre and a portable 'pop-up' display about the Scarborough Bombardment available to loan from April.

